

London High School Marching Band

Band Camp Pick-Up

On Friday, August 4th at 2:00 p.m., the London High School Marching Band will be performing its Parent Show at Wright State University. Parents/Guardians are responsible for transporting their child from Wright State University after the show. Please indicate below who will be picking up your child. If your child is being picked up by someone other than a parent or guardian, that individual needs to sign the form. At check out, whoever picks up your child will need to sign him/her out prior to departing.
